HARRITY TO HIS FOES.

Cant's Remove Him From Democratic National Committee.

ALWAYS BEEN A TRUE DEMOCRAT.

Chairman Jones Accepted His Declaration of Allegiance in the Last Presidential Campaign and Is the Only Person Who Can Displace Him.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 30.—William F. Harritt has sent a letter to John M. Garman, chairman of the Democratic state committee defining his position of the movement agitated by certain factions of the party to oust him from the national committee. After referring to the call issued by Chairman Garman for a meeting of the state committee at Reading tonight—the eve of the state convention—"for the purpose of considering the question of the vacancy in the membership from Pennsylvania in the Democratic national committee and of filling such vacancy if the same be found to exist," Mr. Harritt continues:

The language of your call practically assumes that there is no vacancy in the Pennsylvania membership of the Democratic national committee, and, as a matter of fact, there is none. I was elected to that position by the Democratic national convention upon the unanimous recommendation of the Pennsylvania delegation to that convention. (See proceedings of the Democratic national convention of 1896, pages 167 to 171.) I have not resigned, and I have not been removed; nor is it in the power of any convention committee or person to remove me, except in the national Democratic committee itself.

"In the campaign of 1896 the Democratic national committee delegated to its campaign committee the power to declare vacancies. In pursuance of that authority, Chairman James K. Jones, on behalf of the campaign committee, on Oct. 15, 1896, raised the question of my attitude toward the Democratic party, and I made reply to him under date of Oct. 20, 1896. My answer was accepted as entirely satisfactory by Chairman Jones, and he so declared and so decided. He declined to make a vacancy or assent that one should be made. Enclosed you will find copies of the letters which passed at the time, which I trust will, with this communication, be submitted for the consideration of the members of the Democratic state committee."

Mr. Harritt then refers to the resolution defeated at the state convention of Sept. 10, 1896, requesting Chairman Jones to declare Harritt's place on the national committee vacant.

Said he: "The consideration of this resolution by the state convention thus clearly recognized that the power of removal rested entirely and exclusively with the Democratic national committee. That convention was held in the midst of the presidential campaign and you were then the chairman of the Democratic state central committee. You opposed the resolution and so advised your friends among the delegates from Luzerne county. You then regarded such an attack upon me as both unwise and improper, and subsequent to that convention you so declared to others as well as to me personally."

"It will thus be seen that at the proper time for the consideration of the matter in controversy, if there was any reason for raising the question at all, namely, in the presidential campaign of 1896, the Democracy of Pennsylvania expressed its opinion in my favor, and the Democratic national committee through its chairman, decided that there was not sufficient reason for my removal from membership in the Democratic national committee. Even within the past few months, namely on July 20, 1897, Chairman Jones has written me that 'your letter to me last fall impressed me as straightforward, candid and manly and I accepted it as being entirely satisfactory to me.'"

"In pursuance of the public declaration made by me over a year ago that I did not intend to thereafter actively participate in politics, as I had previously done, I have not desired to have much to say concerning political management or organization. I have had no candidates to suggest and I have no disposition to interfere with the legitimate work of the state convention. I have, however, ventured to suggest that I hoped that wise councils would prevail at the Reading convention, and that the outcome would be of that character that would be an invitation to all Democrats to take an active and aggressive part in the coming campaign, which may fairly be regarded as the preliminary skirmish of the gubernatorial and senatorial contests of 1898. I regret to notice, however, that the indications are that some of the Democratic leaders, among them some who are officially connected with the organization of the party, are bent upon a course which they mistakenly think will benefit themselves, regardless of its effects upon the party itself or its future."

"The attack made upon me by some of those within the Democratic party in Pennsylvania is unjustifiable, and in the main it is prompted by selfish, unworthy and malign motives. By their wilful and malicious misrepresentations, they have misled some others into the belief that in some way I have been inimical to the Democratic party and its interests. But such is not the fact. I have never voted any other than the Democratic ticket and have never supported any other than Democratic candidates. That has been my habit. I have no desire to change it, and I do not intend to do so. It is my hope and expectation to vote for the nominees of the Reading convention."

"Allow me to add that I do not believe that success ought to or can attend the efforts of those who are so narrow and bigoted as to insist that the declarations of a political convention are so binding upon the political consciences of the members of a party as to drive from its membership all of those who do not accept implicitly every line and every letter of its every dogma or doctrine."

"Chairman Jones himself was broad enough to express this same belief when he declared my letter to him was 'a straightforward, manly letter, which seemed to cover the case completely.'"

"If at any time in the future the Democratic national committee, the only body now having jurisdiction of the qualifications of its members, since the work and life of the campaign committee, to which it had delegated its power in the premises, ended with the campaign of 1896, shall think it proper to further consider the matter, I shall cheerfully submit to its authority and bow to its decision."

"Respectfully,"

"W. F. HARRITY." The enclosed correspondence consists of a letter from Chairman Jones, Oct. 15, 1896, asking him to state his position in the national campaign, and Mr. Harritt's reply, declaring his allegiance to the party but maintaining his belief in the "sound money" platform adopted by the Democratic state convention at Allentown, Pa., April 29, 1896.

GRAVE DANGER OF FAMINE.

Two Persons Report Lack of Food and Idle Men in Klondyke.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30.—W. A. Ryan, one of the correspondents of the Associated Press, enroute to Yukon gold fields, writes from St. Michaels under date of Aug. 15 to the effect that there is grave danger of a famine on the Klondyke this winter. According to all reports received from the upper country it will be impossible to land sufficient food at Dawson City to support the population already dependent on that base of supplies.

R. T. Lyng, local agent of the Alaska Commercial company at St. Michaels, declares that there are already 2,000 idle men in Dawson and new parties arriving every day via Chilkoot pass, while the total amount of freight landed there this year will not exceed 4,000 tons, of which not more than three fourths is provisions. Miners returning from Klondyke who left there in July report that the food was running very low then, and it was disposed of as fast as discharged from the steamers. Old timers realize the situation and predict distress and death as a result of the Klondyke craze.

A DENTIST WORTH $35,000,000.

Dr. Evans Returning to Philadelphia. Mends Royalty's Teeth.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—Dr. Thomas W. Evans, the famous American dentist, who for the past 40 years has been the dental operator in Paris of most of the crowned heads of Europe and many celebrities, returned to this country on the French liner La Champagne from Havre. He came over with the body of his wife, which is to be interred in Woodlands cemetery, Philadelphia. Dr. Evans is now 75 years of age and is said to be worth $35,000,000.

During the empire of Napoleon III his fame as a dentist was worldwide. In that capacity he served Napoleon, the Empress Eugenie and all the monarchs of Europe except Queen Victoria and the present sultan of Turkey. Victoria's children and the present czar of Russia when children were his patients. Dr. Evans has orders and decorations innumerable, and it was in his carriage that the Empress Eugenie escaped from Paris after the battle of Sedan.

Georgia Woman Assaulted.

MACON, Ga., Aug. 30.—Mrs. J. Melvin Couch, wife of an engineer at the Manchester cotton mill, has been assaulted by an unknown man. She was choked into insensibility before being able to see whether her assailant was white or black, but thinks he was black. She bit a piece out of his face. He will likely be lynched if caught.

Confessed to a Murder.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Aug. 30.—Christopher Slack, now serving a term in the penitentiary for burglary, confesses that about two years ago he and a half dozen others murdered a peddler, John Wiseman, getting in all $85 in cash and other valuables. They burned the flesh off the bones and burned them. Arrests will be made.

Archbishop Martinelli Participated.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 30.—Archbishop Martinelli, the papal legate, participated in a double celebration at St. Augustines church Sunday, the one hundred and first anniversary of the founding of the church and the first anniversary of the consecration of Monsignor Martinelli as archbishop of Ephesus.

Mile Phenominally Paced.

READVILLE, Mass., Aug. 30.—The pacing stallion Star Pointer went a mile in 1:55 1/4 here Saturday.

FAMED TREASURE SHIP.

Portland Finally Arrives With $575,000 In Gold.

DEATHS FROM STARVATION SURE.

A Correspondent Compares the Amount of Food Going Into the Klondyke With the Number of People There Will Be to Feed—Lack of Shelter.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 30.—The steamer Portland has arrived here 14 hours after she was sighted off Cape Flattery. The Portland carried 13 miners, each of whom brought only a small part of his stake. The total amount of dust on the vessel is perhaps $575,000. The Portland was delayed by the failure of the P. B. Wear to arrive at St. Michaels and by a storm on the North Pacific ocean.

The miners on board with the amount of their total mining profits, parts of which were brought with them, are as follows: J. Rowan, $50,000; Jim Bell, $45,000; Joe Goldsmith, $35,000; N. W. Powers, $5,000; W. W. Caldwell, $35,000; W. Oler, $30,000; C. K. Zilly, $25,000; F. W. Cobb, $25,000; W. Zahn, $15,000; A. Buckley, $10,000; M. S. Lansing, $15,000; B. W. Farnham, $10,000; M. R. Camlers, $15,000.

H. N. Stanley, who went to St. Michaels for the Associated Press, returned to this city on the steamer Portland. He says:

"I have been seven weeks at the mouth of the Yukon, at St. Michaels, where I saw all the miners coming out and in and interviewed them. As a result I feel it my duty to advise everybody to stay out until next spring. Wild, and in many cases, exaggerated reports have been circulated since the first discoveries were made. The strike, however, was, and is, one of the greatest, if not the greatest, in the world's history. Probably $2,000,000 was cleaned up this spring, and next spring I look for from $5,000,000 to $7,000,000. The fields have hardly been opened up as yet, but those going in now must bear in mind that everything in that region was staked long before any reports reached the outer world and that those going in now must prospect for themselves, buy claims, from the present owners or work for the owners."

He said that the climate is so rigorous that only the most hardy can live in it. Even they must have abundant food and warm clothing. Then he said: "The average man requires about one ton of carefully selected food and clothing for a year's supplies. In the summer of 1896 about 3,500 tons of supplies went up the river, and the new population of 1,500 to 2,000 suffered from want. Of this 3,500 tons probably 1,500 tons were rum, tools, furniture and supplies other than provisions. This season, allowing the most favorable circumstances, not more than 4,200 tons of supplies can be got up the river, fully half of which is rum and tools, as well as supplies other than food. There are more than three times as many people there than last winter. Figure it out yourself."

"Grub was completely cleaned out this spring and last winter there was such a scarcity that moose hams for $30 each, flour $120 per hundred, bacon $1 per pound; what will not happen this coming winter? Why will not people actually starve to death?"

"As to shelter, 90 per cent of Dawson was living in tents in July, labor is scarce and houses cannot be built. How are 7,000 people to withstand the rigors of a nine months' winter of semi darkness, when the mercury goes 70 degrees below zero?"

"As to labor—it is true that last winter, the winter succeeding the great strike, when men were scarce, wages were $15 a day, but if no new strike is made, what is to keep wages up this winter? There are but 340 claims on Bonanza, Eldorado and Hunker creeks that will probably be worked this winter, an average of eight men to each, I think, liberal. If but 2,700 men are employed and there are 5,000 or more seeking work, what must be the result? Wages must go down. I am told that much grub has gone over the divide, yet from what I know I would wager my last dollar that not to exceed 500 tons of supplies over and above what the carriers ate will reach the diggings. No man going in can arrive with more than a four months' supply."

"To draw provisions for the trip from Dyea to Dawson anytime before the spring breaks up is an impossibility. Relief for those caught in the Klondyke after winter sets in is equally impossible; in the name of humanity I ask that a stop be put to this wholesale transportation without supplies. Let no man be allowed to enter that region unless he carries with him enough food and clothing to last him a year."

"There are women and little children in there today who should be sent out as far as St. Michael before navigation closes. I hear much of the boats that are building to go up the river, but aside from one steamer ready on Aug. 11, no new boat can be added to the carrying craft this fall."

Only 920 Women, 1,356 Were Illiterate, 51 Escaped In Ohio.

Four persons died during the year. Fifty-one escaped, of which two were recaptured.

The total amount expended for the maintenance of prisoners during the year was $125,892.41. Amount expended for repairs, $7,961.81.

GUARDS COURT MARTIALED.

Militiamen Were Sternly Dealt With For Disobedience.

STEEBENVILLE, Aug. 30.—Today the Eighth Ohio national guard broke camp. During regimental inspection eight men were exhausted with the heat. Lieutenant Chapman of Canton, a member of the signal corps, had his leg broken by the kick of a horse. Regimental Commissary Atkinson of Alliance had his leg sprained by a horse falling on him.

Corporal Sloan of Wooster, who was so badly beaten on the Bowery by toughs is recovering. All of the Eighth regiment boys who were out without passes on Friday night when the shooting took place were courtmartialed, fined and given extra guard duty. The Bowery dives were raided, growing out of the outrageous attack on the militia.

Corporal Henry Geyer of Company B, Eighth Infantry, O. N. G., while defending himself in a saloon brawl, shot John Ovington and Orville Ely of this city.

Ovington is fatally wounded. Ely was wounded twice dangerously. Geyer was arrested after a hot chase. A member of company D of Wooster was badly beaten after the fight and was taken to camp.

DESTITUTION AMONG MINERS.

Over 1,200 Have Nothing to Eat at Nelsonville—Some Ill.

NELSONVILLE, O., Aug. 30.—The destitution among miners here is very great. Mayor Buckley says 1,260 persons, the entire mining population of the town, have absolutely nothing to eat and 100 of these are sick. In this immediate vicinity there are 7,000 destitute people, a large number of whom are children. Local charity has helped them till its means are gone.

Gardens supplied the wants of these people until recently, but that resource is now exhausted. Relief committees have been appointed for the entire district, but they are powerless on account of lack of supplies. Nothing in cash or supplies has been received here this week, except $25 in money. A citizens' special committee is exerting itself to secure temporary relief. If outside help does not come soon the consequences will be appalling.

Angry Man's Terrible Crime.

COATESVILLE, Pa., Aug. 30.—In a fit of ungovernable anger Ralph Moore fired with a shotgun into a group of four men at Mortonville and instantly killed his grandfather, Reuben Segner, who was one of the party. Victor Segner, the young man's uncle, was dangerously wounded, and Charles and Benjamin Moore injured. He was arrested.

Five Points Mission Escaped.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—Twenty steamers were kept busy for over two hours pumping water into the six story factory building at 478 and 480 Pearl street, which had taken fire from some unknown cause, and was threatening to ignite the Five Points Mission home on Park street. The flames were confined to the building. Total loss, $75,000.

MCKINLEY'S COMRADES.

He Will Meet Them at Fremont, O., This Week.

MANY OF THEM ARE NOTED MEN.

The Regiment Furnished Two Presidents and Others Who Were Prominent in Time of Peace—Major McKinley Will See Miss Hayes Married.

FREMONT, O., Aug. 30.—The first and second days of September will have noted events here at both of which President McKinley will be in attendance. Sept. 1 occurs the wedding of Ensign Smith and Miss Hayes, the daughter of the ex-president; and on Sept. 2 occurs the reunion of the regiment in which Hayes and McKinley served during the war.

The Twenty-third Ohio regiment claims the distinction of having among its officers more men who attained high positions during and after the war than any other regiment in the United States. Two of its officers became president of the United States—R. B. Hayes and William McKinley—one reached the office of United States senator and associate justice of the supreme court of the United States—Stanley Matthews.

Its first colonel, W. S. Rosecrans, was appointed brigadier general in the regular army before his regiment reached the field. The next in command, E. P. Scammon, was afterward made major general of volunteers, and was equally successful in business life. The fourth colonel, James M. Comly, was mustered out with the regiment, and afterward was known as a distinguished journalist. Lieutenant Colonel Russell Hastings, now a resident of the Bermuda Islands, is known as a successful man of business in Ohio since the war. Captain G. R. Giddings was appointed major in the United States army. Lieutenant R. P. Kennedy was later lieutenant governor of Ohio and also a member of congress. Lieutenant James L. Botsford was made captain and assistant adjutant general on the staff of General Scammon. Lieutenant George W. Hicks was made colonel of a New York regiment.

President McKinley rose from the ranks to second lieutenant Sept. 24, 1862. He was promoted to first lieutenant Feb. 7, 1863, and to captain July 25, 1864, and was afterward breveted major.

The regiment saw severe and trying service in the mountains of West Virginia, and participated honorably in the engagements of South Mountain and Antietam in 1862. It was especially conspicuous at the celebrated battle of Cedar Creek, Oct. 19, 1864, when Sheridan made his ride to Winchester.

SPENDING A QUIET DAY.

The President Attending No Functions. Went to Church Sunday.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 30.—President McKinley remained at Senator Hanna's home and took no part in any social or public functions.

President McKinley attended divine service on Sunday morning at Epworth Memorial M. E. church, where he has a pew. He was accompanied by Mr. James F. Rhodes, the historian, and Mrs. Rhodes. The church was crowded to its utmost capacity. The president entered just as the voluntary was being played and in time to hear a solo sung by Dr. Ion A. Jackson of the choir of the Church of Incarnation of New York. He gave close attention to the sermon by Rev. Ward Beecher Pickard and joined in the congregational singing.

At the conclusion of the services the president shook hands with a few ladies and gentlemen, but went to his carriage as quickly as possible and was driven to the home of Senator Hanna.

The afternoon was passed quietly and in the evening a dinner party was given by Senator Hanna. Those at the table besides Mr. and Mrs. McKinley were Senator and Mrs. Hanna, Secretary Alger and Mrs. Alger, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Corning, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Whitelaw, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Burnham, Colonel and Mrs. M. T. Herriek, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Everett, Mr. and Mrs. Kenyon V. Painter, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Hanna and Miss Hanna.

Senator Hanna announces that the name of his home is not Windermere, as it has been called in the newspapers, but Glenmere.

SMALL OPERATORS REVOLT.

Will Start Up at 69 Cents If Strikers Consent.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 30.—The small coal operators in the Pittsburgh district, who are in the majority, are in revolt against the "Big Thirteen," or lake shippers, and threaten to put their mines in operation at the rate demanded by the miners—69 cents—this week, if the miners' officials will allow their men to go to work. Instead of selling their product to the "Big Thirteen," as heretofore, they will forward it to the different markets themselves.

Miners' President Dolan said that if the small operators could show how they were going to sell their coal outside the syndicate he would readily give his consent to their plans to resume work.

Can't Remove Him From Democratic National Committee.

FAMED TREASURE SHIP.

Portland Finally Arrives With $575,000 In Gold.

DEATHS FROM STARVATION SURE.

A Correspondent Compares the Amount of Food Going Into the Klondyke With the Number of People There Will Be to Feed—Lack of Shelter.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 30.—The steamer Portland has arrived here 14 hours after she was sighted off Cape Flattery. The Portland carried 13 miners, each of whom brought only a small part of his stake. The total amount of dust on the vessel is perhaps $575,000. The Portland was delayed by the failure of the P. B. Wear to arrive at St. Michaels and by a storm on the North Pacific ocean.

The miners on board with the amount of their total mining profits, parts of which were brought with them, are as follows: J. Rowan, $50,000; Jim Bell, $45,000; Joe Goldsmith, $35,000; N. W. Powers, $5,000; W. W. Caldwell, $35,000; W. Oler, $30,000; C. K. Zilly, $25,000; F. W. Cobb, $25,000; W. Zahn, $15,000; A. Buckley, $10,000; M. S. Lansing, $15,000; B. W. Farnham, $10,000; M. R. Camiers, $15,000.

"I have been seven weeks at the mouth of the Yukon, at St. Michaels, where I saw all the miners coming out and in and interviewed them. As a result I feel it my duty to advise everybody to stay out until next spring. Wild, and in many cases, exaggerated reports have been circulated since the first discoveries were made. The strike, however, was, and is, one of the greatest, if not the greatest, in the world's history. Probably $2,000,000 was cleaned up this spring, and next spring I look for from $5,000,000 to $7,000,000. The fields have hardly been opened up as yet, but those going in now must hear in mind that everything in that region was staked long before any reports reached the outer world and that those going in now must prospect for themselves, buy claims, from the present owners or work for the owners."

He said that the climate is so rigorous that only the most hardy can live in it. Even they must have abundant food and warm clothing. Then he said: "The average man requires about one ton of carefully selected food and clothing for a year's supplies. In the summer of 1896 about 3,500 tons of supplies went up the river, and the new population of 1,500 to 2,000 suffered from want. Of this 3,500 tons probably 1,500 tons were rum, tools, furniture and supplies other than provisions. This season, allowing the most favorable circumstances, not more than 4,200 tons of supplies can be got up the river, fully half of which is rum and tools, as well as supplies other than food. There are more than three times as many people there than last winter. Figure it out yourself."

"Grub was completely cleaned out this spring and last winter there was such a scarcity that moose hams for $30 each, flour $120 per hundred, bacon $1 per pound; what will not happen this coming winter? Why will not people actually starve to death?"

"As to shelter, 90 percent of Dawson was living in tents in July, labor is scarce and houses cannot be built. How are 7,000 people to withstand the rigors of a nine months' winter of semi darkness, when the mercury goes 70 degrees below zero?"

"As to labor—it is true that last winter, the winter succeeding the great strike, when men were scarce, wages were $15 a day, but if no new strike is made, what is to keep wages up this winter? There are but 340 claims on Bonanza, Eldorado and Hunker creeks that will probably be worked this winter, an average of eight men to each is, I think, liberal. If but 2,700 men are employed and there are 5,000 or more seeking work, what must be the result? Wages must go down. I am told that much grub has gone over the divide, yet from what I know I would wager my last dollar that not to exceed 500 tons of supplies over and above what the carriers ate will reach the diggings. No man going in can arrive with more than a four months' supply."

"To draw provisions for the trip from Dyea to Dawson anytime before the spring breaks up is an impossibility. Relief for those caught in the Klondyke after winter sets in is equally impossible; in the name of humanity I ask that a stop be put to this wholesale transportation without supplies. Let no man be allowed to enter that region unless he carries with him enough food and clothing to last him a year."

"There are women and little children in there today who should be sent out as far as St. Michael before navigation closes. I hear much of the boats that are building to go up the river, one aside from one steamer ready on Aug. 11, no new boat can be added to the carrying craft this fall."

Four persons died during the year. Fifty-one escaped, of which two were recaptured.

The total amount expended for the maintenance of prisoners during the year was $125,892.41. Amount expended for repairs, $7,961.81.

GUARDS COURT-MARTIALED.

Minutemen Were Sternly Dealt With For Disobedience.

STUBENVILLE, Aug. 30.—Today the Eighth Ohio national guard broke camp. During regimental inspection eight men were exhausted with the heat. Lieutenant Chapman of Canton, a member of the signal corps, had his leg broken by the kick of a horse. Regimental Commissary Atkinson of Alliance had his leg sprained by a horse falling on him.

Corporal Sloan of Wooster, who was so badly beaten on the Bowery by toughs is recovering. All of the Eighth regiment boys who were out without passes on Friday night when the shooting took place were court-martialed, fined and given extra guard duty. The Bowery dives were raided, growing out of the outrageous attack on the militia.

Corporal Henry Geyer of Company B, Eighth infantry, O. N. G., while defending himself in a saloon brawl, shot John Ovington and Orville Ely of this city.

Ovington is fatally wounded. Ely was wounded twice dangerously. Geyer was arrested after a hot chase. A member of company D of Wooster was badly beaten after the fight and was taken to camp.

DESTITUTION AMONG MINERS.

Over 1,200 Have Nothing to Eat at Nelsonville—Some Ill.

NELSONVILLE, O., Aug. 30.—The destitution among miners here is very great. Mayor Buckley says 1,260 persons, the entire mining population of the town, have absolutely nothing to eat and 100 of these are sick. In this immediate vicinity there are 7,000 destitute people, a large number of whom are children. Local charity has helped them till its means are gone.

Gardens supplied the wants of these people until recently, but that resource is now exhausted. Relief committees have been appointed for the entire district, but they are powerless on account of lack of supplies. Nothing in cash or supplies has been received here this week, except $25 in money. A citizens' special committee is exerting itself to secure temporary relief. If outside help does not come soon the consequences will be appalling.

Angry Man's Terrible Crime.

COATESVILLE, Pa., Aug. 30.—In a fit of ungovernable anger Ralph Moore fired with a shotgun into a group of four men at Mortonsville and instantly killed his grandfather, Reuben Segner, who was one of the party. Victor Segner, the young man's uncle, was dangerously wounded, and Charles and Benjamin Moore injured. He was arrested.

Five Points Mission Escaped.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—Twenty steamers were kept busy for over two hours pumping water into the six story factory building at 478 and 480 Pearl street, which had taken fire from some unknown cause, and was threatening to ignite the Five Points Mission home on Park street. The flames were confined to the building. Total loss, $75,000.

MCKINLEY'S COMRADES.

He Will Meet Them at Fremont, O., This Week.

MANY OF THEM ARE NOTED MEN.

The Regiment Furnished Two Presidents and Others Who Were Prominent in Time of Peace—Major McKinley Will See Miss Hayes Married.

FREMONT, O., Aug. 30.—The first and second days of September will have noted events here at both of which President McKinley will be in attendance. Sept. 1 occurs the wedding of Ensign Smith and Miss Hayes, the daughter of the ex-president; and on Sept. 2 occurs the reunion of the regiment in which Hayes and McKinley served during the war.

The Twenty-third Ohio regiment claims the distinction of having among its officers more men who attained high positions during and after the war than any other regiment in the United States. Two of its officers became president of the United States—R. B. Hayes and William McKinley—one reached the office of United States senator and associate justice of the supreme court of the United States—Stanley Matthews.

Its first colonel, W. S. Rosecrans, was appointed brigadier general in the regular army before his regiment reached the field. The next in command, E. P. Scammon, was afterward made major general of volunteers, and was equally successful in business life. The fourth colonel, James M. Comly, was mustered out with the regiment, and afterward was known as a distinguished journalist. Lieutenant Colonel Russell Hastings, now a resident of the Bermuda Islands, is known as a successful man of business in Ohio since the war. Captain G. R. Giddings was appointed major in the United States army. Lieutenant R. P. Kennedy was later lieutenant governor of Ohio and also a member of congress. Lieutenant James L. Botsford was made captain and assistant adjutant general on the staff of General Scammon. Lieutenant George W. Hicks was made colonel of a New York regiment.

President McKinley rose from the ranks to second lieutenant Sept. 24, 1862. He was promoted to first lieutenant Feb. 7, 1863, and to captain July 25, 1864, and was afterward breveted major.

The regiment saw severe and trying service in the mountains of West Virginia, and participated honorably in the engagements of South Mountain and Antietam in 1862. It was especially conspicuous at the celebrated battle of Cedar Creek, Oct. 19, 1864, when Sheridan made his ride to Winchester.

SPENDING A QUIET DAY.

The President Attending No Functions. Went to Church Sunday.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 30.—President McKinley remained at Senator Hanna's home and took no part in any social or public functions.

President McKinley attended divine service on Sunday morning at Epworth Memorial M. E. church, where he has a pew. He was accompanied by Mr. James F. Rhodes, the historian, and Mrs. Rhodes. The church was crowded to its utmost capacity. The president entered just as the voluntary was being played and in time to hear a solo sung by Dr. Ion A. Jackson of the choir of the Church of Incarnation of New York. He gave close attention to the sermon by Rev. Ward Beecher Pickard and joined in the congregational singing.

At the conclusion of the services the president shook hands with a few ladies and gentlemen, but went to his carriage as quickly as possible and was driven to the home of Senator Hanna.

The afternoon was passed quietly and in the evening a dinner party was given by Senator Hanna. Those at the table besides Mr. and Mrs. McKinley were Senator and Mrs. Hanna, Secretary Alger and Mrs. Alger, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Corning, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Whitelaw, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Burnham, Colonel and Mrs. M. T. Herriek, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Everett, Mr. and Mrs. Kenyon V. Painter, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Hanna and Miss Hanna.

Senator Hanna announces that the name of his home is not Windermere, as it has been called in the newspapers, but Glenmere.

SMALL OPERATORS REVOLT.

Will Start Up at 69 Cents If Strikers Consent.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 30.—The small coal operators in the Pittsburgh district, who are in the majority, are in revolt against the "Big Thirteen," or lake shippers, and threaten to put their mines in operation at the rate demanded by the miners—69 cents—this week, if the miners' officials will allow their men to go to work. Instead of selling their product to the "Big Thirteen," as heretofore, they will forward it to the different markets themselves.

Miners' President Dolan said that if the small operators could show how they were going to sell their coal outside the syndicate he would readily give his consent to their plans to resume work.

IS IT KLONDIKE GOLD?

THE OLD FIND IN INDIANA TRACED TO ITS SOURCE.

Ingenious Theory of an Ancient Gold Bearing Glacier From the Klondike Region. Brown County, Ind., Has Been Successfully Worked For the Past Sixty Years.

News comes from Bean Blossom, Ind., that great activity has marked the recent operations in Brown county's goldfields. It is also added that at no time in the past has such success rewarded the labors of miners. Two men from Georgetown washed out quite a quantity along the banks of Salt creek, and a party from Brownstown, the county seat, are going to organize a company to buy up all the gold land and put in new machinery for the rapid and economical separation of the gold from dust and gravel. The gold beater at Bean Blossom has more work than he can do and thinks of securing help from Indianapolis or Bloomington. Every one in Brown county, north of Weed Patch hill, seems to think the day of jubilee has come.

Sounds like a vagary, does it not? The idea of gold in Indiana! And Bean Blossom, Salt creek, Weed Patch hill—they can be nothing but fancied creations of some imaginative writer. Yet these names are all mentioned in your atlas. Brown county lies south of Indianapolis and is cut across from east to west by a range of hills, the only considerable elevation between Canada and Kentucky. Bean Blossom is the name of a postoffice and town "north of the ridge," and there is a gold beater with a long established business in the place. Salt creek does flow down the north country, near the foot of the ridge, and Weed Patch hill is the highest peak in the range.

And there is gold in Brown county. Of this there is no room for question. More than one state geologist of Indiana has taken note of the fact, and Geologist Owen, with others, has recorded his opinion that the gold came down from the north in the glacial age and was deposited here to the north of the ridge in that period—perhaps centuries in duration—while the glacier, caught and lodged against the range of hills, melted at the bottom and deposited the soil it had dragged loose in the north-west country.

There is no easily discoverable gold south of the ridge. There is none anywhere else in Indiana or any of the region roundabout. The glacier which hid its treasures against this Brown county ridge no doubt had lost its last yellow dust before it reached the hills of Kentucky and Tennessee. Of course in every acre of ground it is probable some trace of gold may be found by chemistry. There is a trace of each mineral in all the minerals. But this Brown county soil—north of the ridge—is really so rich that a man may readily earn from $1 to $2 a day mining.

In the light of the recent northern discoveries it is curious to reflect that doubtless the glacier which made this Salt creek deposit must have gripped in its icy hands the original Klondike claim and have slowly carried it from the tributaries of the Yukon to the tributaries of the Wabash. There is no gold bearing quartz "north of the ridge," nor anywhere nearer than Colorado. There is nothing but the scattered flakes of free gold through the dark gravelly soil. But every woman and every girl child in Brown county has a ring or a pin or a brooch or a bracelet fashioned by the gold beater at Bean Blossom and of Brown county gold.

All that is the lighter marvel. The notable thing is that every one "north of the ridge" expects a marvelous discovery; that the first thing in the child's consciousness is the probable imminence, the ultimate certainty, of "finding the gold." Smart youth may revise its views as to the wisdom of father, the justness of laws, the accuracy of history and the very divinity of Christ. But the youth of Brown county knows there is gold in the hills. Hard life may teach a skeptic doubt of better times, of greater ease "some day," of the railroad so often promised, so often expected in vain, but no adversity, however long drawn out, can dull the expectation of that glorious day when the gold shall be found—not found in these meager measures. The people believe there is a storehouse in the hills, bulging to bursting with mysterious gold, from which some truant flakes slip down the streams. And some day the spring will be touched, to the magnificent enriching of the people. And this is no new thing. Gold was discovered here before Marshall found it at Sutter's fort. Robert Dale Owen knew of it as early as 1835, as he mentions it in his letters, and belief in a greater treasure, still hidden, has existed from the first.

So it seems probable that the first of the Klondike gold was found on the slopes of the Brown county hills.—Chicago Times-Herald.

Precautionary.

"Don't you think the true principle of life is for all mankind to go hand in hand?"

"I don't know about that. There are times and places when mankind has to have one hand on its pocketbook."—Chicago Record.

Waterford Miners Were Very Successful.

JOY IN THE TOWN SUNDAY

Women and Children Were Provided With Many of the Necessities of Life. Squire Hill Asked to Send Supplies to Columbus.

James N. Young and Thomas Hardy, the New Waterford miners who were here last week seeking aid for the families of the striking miners, left for home Saturday night, taking with them $127.50, the charity of the good people of East Liverpool.

They were well received wherever they went, and when it is remembered that the city had before their arrival given several hundred dollars in order that organizers might be sent into the working districts of West Virginia, the city did very well. The arrival of the agents at Waterford was greeted with great joy by the wives and children of the strikers who have been in need of comforts for several weeks. The gentlemen before leaving asked that the NEWS REVIEW express their warmest thanks to the kind people in this place.

Squire Hill is in receipt of a letter from Secretary Pearce at Columbus thanking East Liverpool for the last contribution of $100. He says:

"We intend to keep up this fight. You may tell the people of East Liverpool that our men are as firm and as brave and patriotic today as they were on July 4 when they first suspended work. I would advise you now to forward produce, provisions etc. to Chief Mine Inspector Hazeltine for distribution. I am satisfied you are doing the best you can for us, and, when we need your financial assistance, we need only mention it to you and you will remember us in the future as you have in the past."

THE NEW RECTOR

Will Be Discussed at a Meeting of St. Stephen's Congregation.

Archdeacon Brown, who conducted services at St. Stephen's church, yesterday, has called a meeting of all Episcopalians for Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the parish house. The archdeacon requests that all be present, for it is his intention, among other things, to give an account to the congregation of the clergyman whom the bishop is thinking of sending to this place. The gentleman's name has not yet been announced, but he will be here next Sunday. It is the intention of the bishop to send a man to the city who will build up the church and give it added power. It is necessary for the good of the church that all members be present at the meeting.

WILL STAND BY HAMPSON.

Liverpool Will Give Salem Its Hearty Support.

The Grand Commandery, Knights Templars, of Ohio, will meet in Toledo September 8-9, and Columbiana county is especially interested because Robert V. Hampson, deputy grand commander, will likely be elected grand commander. A large delegation from Salem will attend, and East Liverpool will be represented by Past Commander George Croxall and Commander B. C. Simms, who will cast the four votes to which Pilgrim commandery is entitled. They will support Mr. Hampson, who has worked his way from the bottom and is looked upon as one of the best men in the state.

Good Pottery Shipments.

The business done at the freight station last week was the largest that has been done so far this summer. The number of cars handled during the week was far in excess of the week previous, and nearly twice as much business was done as was in the corresponding week of last year.

Didn't Recognize It.

A well known young man went to the country yesterday accompanied by two young ladies, and as they approached the house where they were to spend the afternoon came across a sturnstile. He at once proceeded to climb over it much to the amusement of his friends.

NOTICE.

All members of Iroquois tribe, Improved Order of Red Men, are requested to meet at their hall at 7 o'clock sharp tonight to make arrangements for the funeral of our late brother, Luke Hayes. By order of THE SACHEM.

But the youth of Brown county knows there is gold in the hills. Hard life may teach a skeptic doubt of better times, of greater ease "some day," of the railroad so often promised, so often expected in vain, but no adversity, however long drawn out, can dull the expectation of that glorious day when the gold shall be found—not found in these meager measures. The people believe there is a storehouse in the hills, bulging to bursting with mysterious gold, from which some truant flakes slip down the streams. And some day the spring will be touched, to the magnificent enriching of the people. And this is no new thing. Gold was discovered here before Marshall found it at Sutter's fort. Robert Dale Owen knew of it as early as 1835, as he mentions it in his letters, and belief in a greater treasure, still hidden, has existed from the first.

So it seems probable that the first of the Klondike gold was found on the slopes of the Brown county hills.—Chicago Times-Herald.

Waterford Miners Were Very Successful.

JOY IN THE TOWN SUNDAY

Women and Children Were Provided With Many of the Necessities of Life. Squire Hill Asked to Send Supplies to Columbus.

James N. Young and Thomas Hardy, the New Waterford miners who were here last week seeking aid for the families of the striking miners, left for home Saturday night, taking with them $127.50, the charity of the good people of East Liverpool.

They were well received wherever they went, and when it is remembered that the city had before their arrival given several hundred dollars in order that organizers might be sent into the working districts of West Virginia, the city did very well. The arrival of the agents at Waterford was greeted with great joy by the wives and children of the strikers who have been in need of comforts for several weeks. The gentlemen before leaving asked that the NEWS REVIEW express their warmest thanks to the kind people in this place.

Squire Hill is in receipt of a letter from Secretary Pearce at Columbus thanking East Liverpool for the last contribution of $100. He says:

"We intend to keep up this fight. You may tell the people of East Liverpool that our men are as firm and as brave and patriotic today as they were on July 4 when they first suspended work. I would advise you now to forward produce, provisions etc., to Chief Mine Inspector Hazeltine for distribution. I am satisfied you are doing the best you can for us, and, when we need your financial assistance, we need only mention it to you and you will remember us in the future as you have in the past."

THE NEW RECTOR

Will Be Discussed at a Meeting of St. Stephen's Congregation.

Archdeacon Brown, who conducted services at St. Stephen's church, yesterday, has called a meeting of all Episcopalians for Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the parish house. The archdeacon requests that all be present, for it is his intention, among other things, to give an account to the congregation of the clergyman whom the bishop is thinking of sending to this place. The gentleman's name has not yet been announced, but he will be here next Sunday. It is the intention of the bishop to send a man to the city who will build up the church and give it added power. It is necessary for the good of the church that all members be present at the meeting.

WILL STAND BY HAMPSON.

Liverpool Will Give Salem Its Hearty Support.

The Grand Commandery, Knights Templars, of Ohio, will meet in Toledo September 8-9, and Columbiana county is especially interested because Robert V. Hampson, deputy grand commander, will likely be elected grand commander. A large delegation from Salem will attend, and East Liverpool will be represented by Past Commander George Croxall and Commander B. C. Simms, who will cast the four votes to which Pilgrim commandery is entitled. They will support Mr. Hampson, who has worked his way from the bottom and is looked upon as one of the best men in the state.

Good Pottery Shipments.

The business done at the freight station last week was the largest that has been done so far this summer. The number of cars handled during the week was far in excess of the week previous, and nearly twice as much business was done as was in the corresponding week of last year.

Didn't Recognize It.

A well known young man went to the country yesterday accompanied by two young ladies, and as they approached the house where they were to spend the afternoon came across a sturnstile. He at once proceeded to climb over it much to the amusement of his friends.

NOTICE.

All members of Iroquois tribe, Improved Order of Red Men, are requested to meet at their hall at 7 o'clock sharp tonight to make arrangements for the funeral of our late brother, Luke Hayes. By order of THE SACHEM.

WE LOST A POOR GAME

Toronto Didn't Do a Thing to Us.

CATCHER COLLINS IS NO MORE

He and Captain Jobbling Discussed the Matter, and After an Exchange of Pleasantries the Man Behind the Bat Released Himself—News of Wellsville.

Perhaps the sorest lot of baseball players who ever returned to Wellsville could be found among the Crescents as they came from Toronto last Saturday night.

They had been beaten. Their once bright banner was trailing in the dust and the hopes of the team trailed with it. Not only had they gone down before the victorious onslaughts of the Toronto boys, but the defeat soon merged into disordered, inglorious route. For an inning or two they played with a remnant of that spirit which has for weeks kept floating high the lavender flag with the proud pink crescent, but then the team went to pieces. Error followed error, while Toronto piled up runs with an energy which almost exhausted its players and took all spirit from the Wellsville breast. When Patterson left the box Toronto was jubilant, and when his successor could do no better their wild, savage joy knew no bounds, while Wellsville became more discouraged and played like a party of Cherokee Indians who had never before looked upon a diamond or enjoyed the exhilarating exercise of a home run. The Crescents could do nothing toward winning, but they remained on the field until the end when the score showed Wellsville 1, Toronto 19.

There was an echo of the game in Main street yesterday. Catcher Collins and Captain Jobbling came together and an explanation of the game brought about blows. Collins told Jobbling that more earnest effort and less grandstand plays on the part of the captain would win more games, and Jobbling told Collins several equally interesting things. They were separated by friends, but Collins at once resigned, saying he would not again play under Jobbling.

There may be an excuse for the defeat. The boys were worn out because of the Rock Point game, and were not in condition to meet a strong team such as is in Toronto.

The News of Wellsville.

C. E. Flannigan, of Steubenville, is in the city.

Robert Galvin, who has long conducted a grocery business on Tenth street, has sold his stock and trade to a Liverpool man.

There will be no road race next Saturday. All the arrangements had been made so far as the entries and officers were concerned, but the business men failed to show any great degree of interest. In fact they did not come forward cheerfully with the prizes required to make the race a success, and it has gone by the board. Wheelmen generally regret it.

The Social Position of Actors.

The time was in France when the actor had no social position, and certainly no spiritual one. Spécial dispensation was necessary when the Catholic church allowed a mass to be said for the repose of an actor's soul. In The Chautauquan Professor Warren, describing the Moliere period, writes:

The social position of actors in Moliere's time was a low one. Not from any prejudice against the stage evidently, since dramatists like Corneille and Scarron were on the same footing at the Hotel de Rambouillet and the other salons of Paris as poets and essayists and were elected to the French Academy as readily. Indeed, it would seem as though the composition of plays was the shortest road to distinction in the Paris of Moliere, as it is today. But with the actors it was another question. Their wandering, unsettled modes of life had evidently told against them. They were not admitted to society whether their conduct was good or bad. They were not even considered in the light of literary persons. Moliere met his friends, Boileau, La Fontaine, Furetiere, at public cafes. As a writer of comedy he was either not taken seriously or had incurred too much hostility on the part of influential sets, the clergy through "Tartuffe," the salons through "Les Femmes Savantes." As an actor he was considered an outcast with his class, and when, on his deathbed, he asked for spiritual consolation his appeal fell on deaf ears till it was too late. So that it was with the greatest difficulty that his widow procured a bit of consecrated ground in which to lay the remains of the unshrived comedian.

New Way to Light Matches.

A new and profitable noontime pastime among the gamins who frequent the vicinity of the Reading terminal in Philadelphia never fails to draw a large and interested crowd. One of the boys will lay ten matches in an even row on the hard asphalt. The heads of the matches all point the same way and the matches are about an inch apart. Then the youngster swings a cord on the end of which is fastened a piece of lead.

Swinging the cord rapidly, he handles it so deftly that he hits it with the head of each match and sets it blazing. He makes an agreement with the crowd that if he succeeds in igniting in this manner each of the ten matches without missing he is to have 10 cents. Usually the business men who watch the performance are so well pleased that the gamin gets considerably more than a dime for his trouble and skill.—Philadelphia Press.

LABOR LEADERS' CONFERENCE.

Considerable Disappointment Over the Few at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 30.—The attendance of labor leaders at today's united labor convention is considerable of a disappointment to the local committee on arrangements. The most important persons here: J. R. Sovereign, grand master workman of the Knights of Labor; W. C. Pearce, secretary treasurer of the United Mine Workers of America; Columbus R. Askew, secretary of the National Mineral Miners' association, Ishpeming, Mich., and Sylvester Kellher, formerly secretary of the A. R. U., and at present publisher of the Social Democrat, Chicago.

"It is simply impossible to forecast what this conference will do," said Mr. Sovereign. "Nobody can tell what its outcome will be. It seems to me, however," he continued, "that all labor organizations realize that the time has come for them to put aside all petty jealousies and form one grand amalgamation. Whether this organization will be effected here I cannot even surmise."

"Organized labor has been working for some time on the line of securing legislation which will benefit the working classes, but it has brought us no benefit. We will now get to work in an endeavor to remove the cause of our failure in legislative circles and hope for better results."

FOREIGNERS IN CONTROL.

Determined to Keep the Miners Out About Hazleton, Pa.

HAZLETON, Pa., Aug. 30.—The strike situation here is more unsettled than it has been for some days and rumors of a general shutdown are current. These have excited no little apprehension among the people, who were just beginning to feel the effects of the improved condition of the anthracite coal trade and the activity at the mines due to the increased demands created by the depleted stock of bituminous.

The foreigners control mining matters here, and this fact is coming home to the operators with greater force now than when they imported them for hard coal production and preparation. The Minesville collieries alone have furnished steady work for miners during the past few years, and the native workers who found employment there considered themselves very fortunate. They naturally chafe under the dictation of the foreigners who now prevent them from working.

ADVANCE GRANTED STRIKERS.

Some Miners Voted to Continue Work at Punxsutawney, Pa.

DUBOIS, Pa., Aug. 30.—General Manager Robinson has issued a circular to the Rochester and London striking miners, in which he grants an advance to 40 cents per net ton and gives the company's side of the controversy.

The circular contains the information that the Pittsburg miners are working under this scale of 54 cents for screened coal. The 40-cent rate here is in the same proportion as the 69-cent rate in the Pittsburg region. The miners may accept.

Walston, Adrian and Helvetia mines worked Saturday, while 600 striking miners from Reynoldsville and Eleanor camped on the fair grounds at Punxsutawney. Meetings were held at each of these places Sunday afternoon and addressed by agitators. A vote taken resulted in favor of continuing work.

THEIR BLOOD UP AGAIN.

People About Urbana Want to Lynch Two Dayton Boys.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Aug. 30.—Sheriff Shocknessy was informed that people living in and around St. Paris were organizing to come here to take Rollo Shafstall and Dayton Snyder from jail and lynch them. The young men, who are now in jail here, are the wealthy Dayton boys who, it is alleged, brutally assaulted two girls at St. Paris while out driving with them.

The information was given the sheriff by a Jamestown man who passed through here enroute home from the Addison pioneer meeting. Sheriff Shocknessy professed not to be alarmed over the notification, as Sheriff McLean of Urbana had agreed to let him know of any serious turn and he has not yet heard from him.

The young men who were spending the summer near St. Paris are under arrest for assaulting Misses Myrtle Losh and Eva Richeson while out carriage riding with them.

Miss Richeson is badly injured. The young men were held to the grand jury, but there being indications of great public indignation the sheriff hurried them to Springfield, where they are held.

Beaten by Robbers.

TIFFIN, Aug. 30.—Masked robbers entered the residence of J. B. Miller, in the vicinity of Jerry City, and beat him in a horrible manner. Miller is a bachelor and was supposed to have considerable money about his home. The robbers secured about $90.

Shot by His Son.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Aug. 30.—Edward Painter, a dairyman living three miles east of here, became intoxicated and began to abuse his wife. His son interfered and shot him in the hip, making a wound which may prove fatal.

There is nothing purer than honesty, nothing sweeter than charity, nothing warmer than love, nothing richer than wisdom, nothing brighter than virtue and nothing more steadfast than faith.

A bushel of plasterers' hair, when well dried, equals 15 pounds.

WEYLER ACTING STUBBORN.

Would Have Released Miss Cisneros but For the Agitation.

HAVANA, Aug. 30.—It is asserted here that it was the intention of Captain General Weyler, as the result of quiet and friendly influence on the part of Consul General Lee, to issue an order dismissing the case of Evangelina Cosio Cisneros in a short time, but in view of the publicity given to the case and the many contradictory assertions made in regard to it, the captain general has decided to postpone action for the present.

The military commander of the Isle of Pines recently stated that many of the statements made with reference to Senorita Cisneros were without foundation, and that, so far as he could judge, no extreme sentence would be imposed upon her.

She is chairman of drama in the Cleveland Sorosis and is a writer of recognized ability. Miss Bruot had 1,800 pupils in her classes this year. Her method is to give individual direction as far as is possible, and the peculiarities of the mind of each pupil are studied with a view to adapting to it the training it most needs.

PITH OF THE NEWS.

Mrs. L. N. Scott, wife of the manager of theaters in St. Paul, Minneapolis and Duluth, died in St. Paul. She has been her husband's chief assistant in his business for years.

Andrew Jackson Evans, aged 65 years, died in San Antonio, Tex. He was United States attorney for the western district of Texas under Presidents Grant, Garfield, Arthur and Hayes.

Arthur Storey, who, with his wife, was shot in Chicago by Henry C. Dunker, a barber, who had boarded with them for a number of years and who was jealous of Mrs. Storey, died. Mrs. Storey is in a precarious condition and is not expected to live.

A. G. Van Sittart of Chicago has been appointed by Lord Salisbury as British consul at New Orleans. He has been in the British diplomatic service for 19 years, and was appointed consul at Chicago in 1895.

Arthur G. Burley, the oldest business man in Chicago, died of old age. He has been a resident of Chicago for over 60 years, and was the founder of the crockery firm of Burley & Co. He was born in Exeter, N. H. in 1812.

Burton L. Hotchkiss, aged 25 years, a married farmer residing in the hamlet of Rockland, near Killingsworth, Conn., was mysteriously murdered. He was in his sitting room when a shot came through the open window and lodged in his neck, killing him instantly.

The circular contains the information that the Pittsburg miners are working under this scale of 54 cents for screened coal. The 40-cent rate here is in the same proportion as the 69-cent rate in the Pittsburg region. The miners may accept.

Walston, Adrian and Helvetia mines worked Saturday, while 600 striking miners from Reynoldsville and Eleanora camped on the fair grounds at Punxsutawney. Meetings were held at each of these places Sunday afternoon and addressed by agitators. A vote taken resulted in favor of continuing work.

THEIR BLOOD UP AGAIN.

People About Urbana Want to Lynch Two Dayton Boys.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Aug. 30.—Sheriff Shocknessy was informed that people living in and around St. Paris were organizing to come here to take Rollo Shafstall and Dayton Snyder from jail and lynch them. The young men, who are now in jail here, are the wealthy Dayton boys who, it is alleged, brutally assaulted two girls at St. Paris while out driving with them.

The information was given the sheriff by a Jamestown man who passed through here enroute home from the Addison pioneer meeting. Sheriff Shocknessy professed not to be alarmed over the notification, as Sheriff McLean of Urbana had agreed to let him know of any serious turn and he has not yet heard from him.

The young men who were spending the summer near St. Paris are under arrest for assaulting Misses Myrtle Losh and Eva Richeson while out carriage riding with them.

Miss Richeson is badly injured. The young men were held to the grand jury, but there being indications of great public indignation the sheriff hurried them to Springfield, where they are held.

Beaten by Robbers.

TIFFIN, Aug. 30.—Masked robbers entered the residence of J. B. Miller, in the vicinity of Jerry City, and beat him in a horrible manner. Miller is a bachelor and was supposed to have considerable money about his home. The robbers secured about $90.

Shot by His Son.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Aug. 30.—Edward Painter, a dairyman living three miles east of here, became intoxicated and began to abuse his wife. His son interfered and shot him in the hip, making a wound which may prove fatal.

There is nothing purer than honesty, nothing sweeter than charity, nothing warmer than love, nothing richer than wisdom, nothing brighter than virtue and nothing more steadfast than faith.

A bushel of plasterers' hair, when well dried, equals 15 pounds.

WEYLER ACTING STUBBORN.

Would Have Released Miss Cisneros but for the Agitation.

HAVANA, Aug. 30.—It is asserted here that it was the intention of Captain General Weyler, as the result of quiet and friendly influence on the part of Consul General Lee, to issue an order dismissing the case of Evangelina Cosio Cisneros in a short time, but in view of the publicity given to the case and the many contradictory assertions made in regard to it, the captain general has decided to postpone action for the present.

The military commander of the Isle of Pines recently stated that many of the statements made with reference to Senorita Cisneros were without foundation, and that, so far as he could judge, no extreme sentence would be imposed upon her.

A Bright Cleveland Woman.

Miss Marie L. Bruot, who has charge of the department of expression in the high school of Cleveland, is widely known as a Shakespearean scholar and has presented a number of scenes from his dramas and tragedies. She is chairman of drama in the Cleveland Sorosis and is a writer of recognized ability. Miss Bruot had 1,800 pupils in her classes this year. Her method is to give individual direction as far as is possible, and the peculiarities of the mind of each pupil are studied with a view to adapting to it the training it most needs.

PITH OF THE NEWS.

Mrs. L. N. Scott, wife of the manager of theaters in St. Paul, Minneapolis and Duluth, died in St. Paul. She has been her husband's chief assistant in his business for years.

Arthur Storey, who, with his wife, was shot in Chicago by Henry C. Dunker, a barber, who had boarded with them for a number of years and who was jealous of Mrs. Storey, died. Mrs. Storey is in a precarious condition and is not expected to live.

A. G. Van Sittart of Chicago has been appointed by Lord Salisbury as British consul at New Orleans. He has been in the British diplomatic service for 13 years, and was appointed consul at Chicago in 1895.

Arthur G. Burley, the oldest business man in Chicago, died of old age. He has been a resident of Chicago for over 60 years, and was the founder of the crockery firm of Burley & Co. He was born in Exeter, N. H. in 1812.

Burton L. Hotchkiss, aged 25 years, a married farmer residing in the hamlet of Rockland, near Killingsworth, Conn., was mysteriously murdered. He was in his sitting room when a shot came through the open window and lodged in his neck, killing him instantly.

THE Eighth regiment is not in war, but the soldier boys have seen some stirring times.

COLONEL CONGER'S letter attacking Senator Hanna will be taken as one of those freaks of politics without which no campaign can be complete.

THE determination of Secretary Sherman to take part in the Ohio campaign will show to his friends in the state that he is not a mental wreck and unable to collect his thoughts. No man ever heard John Sherman speak, and went away believing him an imbecile.

THERE is no good reason for the belief that free silver will long be a living issue. Young though it is, it is dying rapidly. As rats desert a sinking ship, so does public opinion abandon an issue which offers nothing better than what we already have.

STUBENVILLE would have found more honor in its centennial had it weeded out the dives before the people came. That shooting affair in which one man almost lost his life and another will be in bed for weeks, would not have occurred had Steubenville been a moral town.

SPAIN has employed some of the sharpest, shrewdest detectives of the world to ferret out and bring to justice
the Cuban filibusters in this country,

Cuban bravery and American tact are

THE gold which went into safes and strong boxes when Bryan began his cry a year or more ago, is again coming forth. There is no longer anything to be gained by keeping it from the public, and it is being floated in the regular channels of trade. Would that have come about had Bryan and a silver congress been elected?

GONE BY THE BOARD.

Mr. McLean's wily managers cannot get away from the bitter disappointment occasioned by the return of Republican times and the re-employment of many thousands of men in Ohio. Try as they will to prevent it the feeling is ever found in the boiler plate editorials and campaign matter sent out by their bureau at Columbus. It crops out at times in nothing more dangerous than a silly paragraph, but occasionally some writer allows his temper to gain the upper hand, and then there are columns of the stuff. This course is not only wrong, but it is unwise. They are not talking to children in this campaign, but to the people of Ohio, who have had enough politics in the natural course of their lives to enable them to readily distinguish between friend and foe, and they have of late had so much foe that they will never again sympathize with any movement which has for its object the glorification of Democracy and the impoverishment of those who gain their bread by the sweat of their brow. The old Democratic argument has gone by the board. No more will it serve to hoodwink the people. Another trial of its efficiency can only result in disaster to those so blind as to believe that free silver and free trade make a bright and shining bait.

DE ZOAR IS SICK.

Doctor Williams Advises That He Be Sent Home.

Theodore DeZoar, the Frenchman who was sentenced to the workhouse by Mayor Gilbert was yesterday seized with an epileptic fit and Dr. L. O. Williams was called. He stated the man would be very sick and advised the authorities to get rid of him. The workhouse will take none but able bodied men and it is probable the sentence will be recalled. The doctor notified the trustees of the case and asked them to send him to his home in Cleveland, but they refused to aid him when they found he had been arrested. If the fine is remitted the trustees will probably pay his fare to Alliance.

LUKE HAYES.

An Old Resident Died After a Long Illness.

Luke Hayes, aged 73 years, died yesterday afternoon at the residence of Jas.
Pepin, Third street. Deceased was well known here, and came to this city in 1865. He has lived here ever since.
The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, from the residence of James Pepin. The services will be in charge of the Red Men.
Friends can see the body after 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.

The three-year-old daughter of Mr.
and Mrs. John G. Bailey died Saturday night at their home in Third street. Interment was made today at Spring Grove.

PROBABLY HIS FIRST RIDE.

An Old Man Wanted Money, Not an Envelope.

Saturday evening an old man boarded a street car in charge of Motorman Christie and handed him 50 cents. The motorman gave him an envelope with the proper change, but the old man refused to take it and demanded his change.
The motorman explained but the old man wouldn't listen, and the trouble was finally settled by the old man being put off the car near the West End park.

WILL SOON ACT.

Council May Decide to Help the Company.

It is probable some action will be taken by council in the near future in regard to the new trestle to be built over Jethro hollow. The street railway company are ready and anxious to commence work on the structure, but are waiting to see whether the city desires to build a foot bridge at the same time.
The matter has been laid before the county commissioners, but no report of their action has yet reached council.

ANOTHER COMMITTEE

funds donated in this city, to give a por-the striking miners of their district.

CELINA IS NOT YET CONTENT

Nor Will She Be Until the Provisions of the Restraining Order Are Carried Out.
Misfortunes of a Farmer—Harry Dickey Found Guilty of Neglecting His Family.

LISBON, Aug. 30.—[Special]—Jacob
L. Chamberlain, of St. Clair township, is charged with disobeying the court's orders concerning the injunction issued last week, forbidding him to enter upon the premises recently set aside by the court to Mrs. Celina Chamberlain as alimony. Complaint was made today that Chamberlain was ignoring the court's order in plowing the land. He was at once ordered to appear before Judge Smith at the court house next Wednesday, to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt.

Sylvester Huff, a well known farmer residing near Rogers, is confined in a cell at the county jail violently insane, and will be taken to Newburg as soon as possible. Last Saturday Huff was taken from the sick room of his wife and two children by Sheriff Gill. The entire family have been suffering from typhoid fever for six weeks. Two weeks ago a 15 year old daughter died.
Huff has cared for all of them, refusing to share his labor with any one. The wife is in a precarious condition.

The jury to which the case of Harry Dickey, of Wellsville, was submitted today, returned a verdict of guilty within 15 minutes. Dickey was tried in Judge Boone's court for not supporting his children, who are with their mother in the infirmary. When the verdict was rendered he begged for suspension of sentence, promising to secure his children and provide them with a home and the necessities of life. A motion was made for a new trial. The matter has not yet been disposed of.

A marriage license was issued to Jacob
L. Emgard and Annie M. Welden, Salem.

SINKING SHIP

Deserted by Democrats—Want to Abandon the Free Silver Issue.

That the managers of the Ohio Democratic campaign already are endeavoring to abandon the free silver issue is sufficient evidence of the essential weakness of the cause. It was an issue of their own making, and it was insisted upon with all the vigor they could command upon the stump and in the newspaper organs of their party.
According to their arguments free coinage of silver, so as to give the mine-owners' 50 cents' worth of silver a legal tender value of $1, was the whole thing.
That was to be the inspiration of all good, just as, by their specious showing, the present sound money system was the root of all evil.

One by one their arguments have been exploded by the immutable processes of supply and demand. Bountiful nature has come to the aid of the laws of trade and commerce in restoring normal business conditions. This government has given no fictitious value to its currency, but prosperity has returned to crown the land with plenty.
The babies will have bread and shoes and books. Their fathers and mothers will have a dollar to spend and one to save. And this is in spite of, not because of, the efforts of those Democrats who, until within the last few weeks, have been devoting all of their energies to advocating the free coinage of silver.

But the Democrats will not be permitted to change the issue as they would cast off a coat. The orders which John R. McLean has conveyed to the state headquarters to "drop silver for the present" can not be carried out to the extent of deceiving the people.
Ohio voters have the very commendable habit of taking their common sense to the polls with them when they cast their ballots.

A Reading.

John C. Hanley will give a reading from "Beside the Bonnie Brier Bush," under the auspices of the young people's society of the Second U. P. church, tomorrow evening. Admission, 10 cents.

Trades Council Adopts Strong Resolutions.

THE PRESS IS CONDEMNED

For the Part It Has Taken in the Struggle—Liverpool's Organized Labor Promises to Support the Miners in Any Form It Can.

A special session of Trades council was held last Saturday night for the purpose of adopting appropriate resolutions to be sent to the gathering of representatives of organized labor at St. Louis today. The resolutions are as follows:

Resolved, That we, as a body, indorse the action of the miners and their officials in their demand for living wages, fair weights and better conditions of work.

Resolved, That we indorse the actions of labor leaders in calling the conference in St. Louis, and we are ready to indorse any legitimate action they may take.

Resolved, That while we recognize the necessity of law by injunction, we condemn the action of the courts in issuing injunctions contrary to the Constitution of the United States, in deriving a man the right of free speech and free assembly and the right of trial by jury.

Resolved, That we condemn the action of the associated and subsidized press, in using their influence in every way, shape and form against the miners and organized labor in general.

Resolved, That we stand ready, at all times, to assist the miners in every possible way.

J. J. WEISEND,
President.

JOHN REARK, Secretary, Protom.

A prominent member of the council stated today that the resolution condemning the press was not directed against the papers of East Liverpool, but a Pittsburg paper whose antagonism to the strikers has become marked.

MORE MONEY

Was Collected on Saturday For the Miners.

Squire E. W. Hill received Saturday from the employes of the Laughlin pottery the sum of $16.25 for the benefit of the miners. This makes a total of $35 donated by that plant, the best record of any pottery. A donation of $14 was also received from the clay hands of Thompson's. The total amount is now $44.90. Of this amount $361 has been forwarded and there is on hand a balance of $83.90. The donations will hereafter be sent direct to the miners, and the committee will meet this evening to decide where the funds shall be expended.

NO BUSINESS.

Not Enough Water to Allow Boats to Pass.

General suspension of business seems to be the order on the river, caused by the low stage of water. At noon the marks in the channel showed 2.8 feet. The rain of last night caused it to rise very little, and unless it was general, it will have but little effect.

The only boats to go up were the Kanawha and Fair Play. The latter craft is a low water one, and is taking the place of the Ben Hur. There will be no Cincinnati packet down this evening, and none are expected during the week.

VERY MUCH BETTER.

Secretary W. H. Charles Will Soon Be Well.

Word received in this city states that Secretary William H. Charles, who has been ill in the Allegheny General hospital for several months, is so improved that the attending physicians expect him to be able to be out of bed within the next week or 10 days. He will then come to this city, and after remaining several days, will go to Utica, N. Y., where he will remain some time.

TO START THIS WEEK.

Marion Martin Will Do the Stone Work of the New Pottery.

The bids for the stone work of the new Sebring pottery were opened this morning, and it was found that Marion Martin was the lowest bidder. There were six contractors after the work.

Martin will have his men at work this week, and every effort will be made to have the plant completed within the specified time.

Good Sermons.

Will Kinney, of this city, yesterday occupied the pulpits of the Methodist Episcopal churches of Georgetown and Smith's Ferry, and delivered two very fine addresses.

ALMOST KILLED.

An Unfortunate Accident Near Hollow Rock.

Mrs. Sadie Berry, of Irondale, was hurt yesterday afternoon by being thrown out of a buggy while on her way home from Hollow Rock.

In the rig with Mrs. Berry were two other ladies and two gentlemen. They were driving rather fast, and were about to pass a Liverpool hack to turn on the Irondale road when a wheel came off. The rig was upset, and Mrs. Berry was thrown against a fence, the other occupants being thrown on top of her. The horses broke the harness, and to a late hour they had not been caught. Doctor Parke Rex, of Wellsville, was called and hastened to the scene. He made an examination of the woman's injuries, and found that while no bones were broken, she was injured internally. Another rig was secured and the woman was taken to her home, where she has been in convulsions since 3 o'clock this morning, and her physician are as yet unable to determine whether she will recover. The woman is a sister-in-law of Mr. Berry, of Sixth street, this city.

Fakirs Are Coming.

From the present outlook there will be a large number of street fakirs in the city next Monday. During the last five days a number of them have applied to the mayor as to the charge for selling on that day.

CAUGHT IN A SALOON

The Police Raided a Happy Little Party.

THEY MAY FIGHT THE CHARGE

Thinking They Have a Good Case—Saloonist Kountz Believes That He, Too, Will See Whether He Can Prove His Innocence.

Officers Moore and Jennings raided John Kountz's saloon in the Midway early yesterday morning and placed the proprietor and four visitors under arrest.

The officers were given the tip that a midnight supper was on, and they took a trip around the place. A few lights were burning in the saloon, but in the rear all was lovely and the police there made a haul. The charge at the mayor's office was made against Fred Irwin, John Haney, Abe Humes and one Smurthwaite. They appeared before the mayor yesterday morning and entered a plea of not guilty and said they would stand trial. They said they were only waiting for the 1:30 train to go to Wellsville, but when the officers entered the place it was two hours after the train had gone. Today they secured the services of an attorney, and it is probable they will be given a preliminary hearing this evening, and unless they change their pleas it will be quite interesting for the offenders as there is a heavy penalty attached to the offense.

Officer Woods arrested William Gilmore early Saturday evening and took him to the coop in the patrol. The man was charged with being drunk, and when found was sleeping under a box car in the freight yard. At the hearing this morning he was fined $6.60 and released.

A SPECIAL OFFICER.

Fireman McMillan Is Now on the Force.

Elmer McMillan, for several years a fireman of the upper station, went to work last evening, as a special policeman. He was placed on the beat formerly worked by Officer Moore, resigned.

Mayor Gilbert was seen this morning about the appointment, and said: "I needed a man and as McMillan had spoken to me about it, I put him on the force. There was only one application received, and I am keeping it on file. I can not say whether I will present his name to council for their action or not. At the present time he is a special officer."

McMillan was asked if he would take the position Saturday night, and was given twenty-four hours to decide. He came to the mayor's office at 6 o'clock last night and told the mayor he would go on. He was sworn in and given a badge with a few instructions, and went out of the office a city officer.

A FORTUNE.

It Will Make a Local Man a Doctor.

He will spend some time there visiting friends, and will then enter a German medical institute where he will take a four-years' course. When his education is completed he expects to return to this country.

The young man has been a resident of this country for nine years and last year was naturalized at Youngstown. He has made many friends here who will be pleased to hear of his good fortune, but will also regret his departure.

GOING TO NEW YORK.

Ill in Alliance.

SPORT AT CUMBERLAND

We Won Without the Slightest Difficulty.

MEN HURT IN THE GAME

It Was Simply a Matter of Running Around the Bases For the Liverpool Boys—A Warm Time at West End Park.

The Liverpool team had but little trouble, last Saturday afternoon, in defeating the Cumberland club, and now claim the undisputed championship of the Ohio valley, as they have defeated all the amateur teams in this section of the state.

The Liverpool boys started the first inning to win the game and scored nine runs before they were put out, while New Cumberland, up to the sixth inning, had only succeeded in getting two men as far as second base, and had only made one scratch hit from the superb pitching of McShane. The Liverpool boys then allowed them to score three runs.

The game was not devoid of accidents, and in the sixth inning C. Jenkins was hit by a batted ball and carried from the field unconscious, delaying the game 30 minutes. In the eighth McNicol had his finger mashed, and Steele took his place at short. The features were the catching of Davis and the base running of all the Liverpool team.

At least forty rooters from this city saw the game, and upon the return trip made things merry in Wellsville. The score:

Klondyke

The Land of Golden Nuggets.

JOSEPH LADUE,

the new Bonanza King of the Klondyke Gold Regions, gives the facts. His book reads like "The Arabian Nights," BUT Joseph Ladue KNOWS whereof he writes. He was the first man on the spot when the first gold was discovered last August, 1896. He located one rich claim and immediately purchased twelve others at a low price before their value was known. He has refused $100,000 for any ONE of these claims, as they are rich with virgin gold nuggets, beyond the dream of avarice. Joseph Ladue then at the mouth of the Klondyke and Yukon Rivers, by erecting the first house in the region in September, one month after the gold was first discovered. He bought 178 acres from the government on the city site where his town lots 150x50 are now selling for $5,000 each.

Mr. Ladue was fortunate enough to be successful in his trading post investments to have on hand ample capital to carry out his plans, and there is no man living who is better posted on Alaska and the great North West Territories than Mr. Joseph Ladue. He has just returned from that country to his old home in Schuler Falls, N. Y., where he passed a large portion of his boyhood and early manhood. Mr. Ladue left his home nearly twenty years ago to seek his fortune in the west going first to the Black Hills, where he was successful in gold mining, thence to Arizona and the Pacific coast and finally located in Alaska and the northwest, where he has covered almost the entire country since 1882. Mr. Ladue is a typical pioneer: strong, hardy and resolute—a man of iron as one must needs be to go through the hardships he has and come out with a constitution unbroken and unimpaired at about the age of 43. Mr. Ladue has not only worked his muscles to good advantage to himself with the result of an abundance of the world's goods, far beyond the dreams of men, but he has evidently all this time been closely observing the conditions of that strange country—the Yukon Valley—which has so suddenly become one of the great centers upon which human interest throughout the world is focussed.

When the wonderful stories began to come down from the Yukon country it was naturally concluded that it was at least half exaggeration. That any such amount of gold could be taken in so short a time from a country like that under the most most unfavorable conditions was held to be incredible. But when the great bags of virgin gold began to be poured out upon mint counters in San Francisco under the eyes of the whole world (for modern journalism does this, annihilating time and space) people began to wonder and the wonder grew day by day as the real facts were disclosed, and now people who are well informed as to the facts declare that half the truth has not been told of the golden treasures of the Yukon Valley.

As we have already said, there is no man today alive who knows more about this wonderful country than does Mr. Ladue. What makes his talk of it specially interesting and reliable is the fact that his knowledge of it is practical. It has not been gained from hearsay nor from desultory visits made now and then at certain favorable seasons of the year, but from steady living there through the long summer days and the long winter nights, year in and year out for 15 years, where he now owns the best mining claims on the Klondyke and its tributaries.

In presenting his book to the public we do so knowing that it is by an authority on the subject of which he writes. His first work entitled

"Klondyke Nuggets"

is a brief description of the new gold regions, and anyone desiring authentic information should not fail to avail themselves of it

SPORT AT CUMBERLAND

We Won Without the Slightest Difficulty.

MEN HURT IN THE GAME

It Was Simply a Matter of Running Around the Bases For the Liverpool Boys—A Warm Time at West End Park.

The Liverpool team had but little trouble, last Saturday afternoon, in defeating the Cumberland club, and now claim the undisputed championship of the Ohio valley, as they have defeated all the amateur teams in this section of the state.

The Liverpool boys started the first inning to win the game and scored nine runs before they were put out, while New Cumberland, up to the sixth inning, had only succeeded in getting two men as far as second base, and had only made one scratch hit from the superb pitching of McShane. The Liverpool boys then allowed them to score three runs.

The game was not devoid of accidents, and in the sixth inning C. Jenkins was hit by a batted ball and carried from the field unconscious, delaying the game 30 minutes. In the eighth McNicol had his finger mashed, and Steele took his place at short. The features were the catching of Davis and the base running of all the Liverpool team.

At least forty rooters from this city saw the game, and upon the return trip made things merry in Wellsville. The score:

Klondyke

The Land of Golden Nuggets.

JOSEPH LADUE,

the new Bonanza King of the Klondyke Gold Regions, gives the facts. His book reads like "The Arabian Nights," BUT Joseph Ladue KNOWS whereof he writes. He was the first man on the spot when the first gold was discovered last August, 1896. He located one rich claim and immediately purchased twelve others at a low price before their value was known. He has refused $100,000 for any ONE of these claims, as they are rich with virgin gold nuggets, beyond the dream of avarice. Joseph Ladue then at the mouth of the Klondyke and Yukon Rivers, by erecting the first house in the region in September, one month after the gold was first discovered. He bought 178 acres from the government on the city site where his town lots 150x50 are now selling for $5,000 each.

DEALERS EXPRESS OPINIONS

An Indianapolis Merchant Is Quoted as Saying That the Real Increase Will Be 20 Per Cent—How They View It In Kansas City.

A trade paper has been investigating the matter of the increase in the price of crockery, and finds that it has already started.

An Indianapolis merchant says: "Queensware jobbers of this city have advanced prices on imported wares 5 to 10 per cent, although the real advance to follow the tariff would be 20 per cent. Dealers say that a further advance can not be postponed more than five or six months. They say the present advance would be greater but for the fact that they have fairly good stocks, and besides this are selling at a close margin of profit. Indianapolis houses in this line have recently been selling largely in Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia and other new territory. The queensware people are impressed with the idea that the season now opening will be the best the trade has known for years. The sale of fruit jars has been especially large this year."

A Kansas City dealer says: "It will cost more to live in wedded bliss after September 1 than it does now—that is, if newly married people keep house. Crockery, cut glass and china are cheaper now than they will be because the new tariff will soon cause a general increase in prices. Indeed, the association of wholesale dealers has already decided to advance prices at once. This set of china, for instance, you can buy for $50. It isn't fine, to be sure, but when the increase is made it will cost you $60. All the goods that are coming in now from the wholesalers will be charged for at advanced prices, and, of course, we dealers must sell them at an increase. The advance, generally, will be from 17 to 20 per cent. On white ware the duty has been increased from 30 to 55 per cent, and on decorated ware from 35 to 60 per cent, which is, approximately, an advance of 80 per cent on the former tariff. The importer and the wholesale dealer must invest more capital for the same article, he will want a little profit on the extra investment, and the result will be that the cost of the goods to the buyer will be increased a mite more in comparison than the per cent of advance in the tariff shows. As this is the dull season, I think few retail dealers will advance prices until at least September 1."

The Klondike Fields.

The recent discovery of gold in Alaska has caused thousands to desert their business with the hope of picking up nuggets of gold in that far off land. However, the journey is a risky one at best, and the prospects of making a fortune very uncertain. If you want to insure good returns for your money, without involving any risk, you can not do better than by taking your family to the East Palestine fair.

This year the track will be greatly improved, and the premium list revised and enlarged. Many new attractions have been procured, which will please the old as well as the young. The speed program is the best ever published by the company, and everyone interested is determined to make it the best fair in the county. Remember the dates—October 5, 6, 7, 1897.

City in the Laundry Business.

In Glasgow municipal paternalism has been carried so far that the city government undertakes to do a general laundry business for bachelors and families who have no one to do their washing. These establishments, however, will not do ironing. They send the clothes home "rough dried" and charge accordingly. This, however, is all that a workingman requires, for he does not wear "boiled" shirts and starched collars and cuffs. If he can get his underclothes and socks and flannel shirts thoroughly washed and dried, he is well taken care of, and the price he pays is just sufficient to cover the expense. The public laundries serve another good purpose in furnishing employment for a number of women who need food and shelter until they can find permanent positions. Therefore nearly all the washerwomen are refugees who are sent to the laundry by the police, the inspectors of the poor or the sanitary inspectors who have found them in a destitute condition.

A woman's journal has been started in Constantinople, in which the doctrine of the equality of the sexes is vigorously advocated.

HER REDEEMING ACT.

A Mother Wins Property to Her Deserted Children.

During the gold excitement of 1849 a young Irishman named Thomas Hogan settled in Calaveras county, Cal., with his wife. He became a miner and amassed considerable property before he died. His widow afterward married John C. Scribner of San Andreas. He died a few years ago and left his property to his widow. The twice widowed woman thus came into the possession of about $30,000. She died a few months ago and left the bulk of her worldly goods to her "nieces and nephews" in Ireland, naming two men and two women.

The lawyer appointed to administer on the estate wrote to the addresses given and learned that two of the four were dead and the remaining two had no knowledge of an aunt in California or any other place. An investigation developed the fact that the supposed Mrs. Hogan was really Mrs. Richard Barnes and that she had left her husband and four children to elope with the young Irishman. She had kept the skeleton in her closet hidden for nearly 50 years, and even in death she tried to protect the secret by referring to her children as her nieces and nephews.—New York World.

A New Poet Comes to the Front.

Lloyd Mifflin, the new American poet who has been so graciously received by Mr. Stoddard, is worthy of all our highest literary authority has said of him. Witness this fine specimen of his work: Upon a cloud among the stars we stood. The angel raised his hand and looked and said, "Which world of all you starry myriad Shall we make wing to?" The still solitude Became a harp whereon his voice and mood Made spherical music round his haloed head. I spake, for then I had not long been dead: "Let me look round upon the vast and broad A moment on these orbs ere I decide. What is yon lower star that beauteous shines And with soft splendor now incarnadines? Our wings? There would I go and there abide." He smiled as one who some child's thought divines, "That is the world where yesternight you died." "The man who wrote that sonnet," says Mr. Stoddard, "is a true poet." And he is right.—Atlanta Constitution.

England Slow In Punishing the Afridis. Women In Danger.

BOMBAY, Aug. 30.—Little fresh news has been received here from the frontier. An attack has been made on Shimwari, in the Samana range, but the attacking force was repulsed, losing five killed and many wounded. There is considerable excitement among the tribes along the Bolan route to Quetta, and the telegraph wires have again been cut. It is reported that the tribesmen are gathering near the Zialet sanitarium and much anxiety is felt regarding the safety of the women and children there.

Rumors are current tending to throw doubts upon the genuineness of the the ameer's reply to the viceroy of India regarding the complicity of Afghan subjects in the uprising.

The general idea here is that if further delay occurs in punishing the Afridis, for which purpose at least 20,000 men are required, there will be a general uprising on an enormous scale, extending from Orakzailand to Zaimukht, beyond Kuram and into Waziristan, despite the presence of the British field force in the Tochi valley east of Rustam. Between Buner and the Indus, the tribes appear to be disinclined to join the rebellion.
